[REDACTED]

Detainee provided atmospheric information on names of interest.

[REDACTED] Hazim, aka Abu Raḡayya is an AAS member who serves as a liaison between AAS and the ISi. Hazim spends a lot of time at the Suq al-Ma'ash with ISi fighters from the right (west) side of Mosul.

[REDACTED] Abu 'Umar the former Wali of Mosul attempted to organize a joint military operation with the members of JAI, AAS and the ISi. AAS and JAI did not agree on the mission and the operation was never conducted. The ISi is always attempting to recruit JAI and AAS members and the organizations as a whole into a united ACF group under the ISi banner. Several JAI and AAS members have quit their respective groups and joined the ISL. Abu 'Umar is a former JAI member and [REDACTED] Anmar, the former Wali of Mosul, was also a JAI member prior to joining the ISi.

[REDACTED] Abu 'Azzam al-Saudi is a FT who was working as a fighter on the right side of Mosul at the time of Detainee's capture. Abu 'Azzam entered Mosul approximately two months ago just prior to Jar Allah's move to Mosul. Detainee does not know what area Abu 'Azzam was operating in prior to coming to Mosul. Detainee does not know who brought Abu 'Azzam to Mosul. Abu 'Azzam was close to [REDACTED] Abu Nasir a Saudi who was working with [REDACTED] Haydar al-Afiri's group in west Mosul. Detainee saw Abu 'Azzam with Haydar and Abu Nasir in [REDACTED] Abu Qasim's safe house in west Mosul. Abu 'Azzam can also be seen with fighters on the west side of Mosul at the Suq al-Ma'ash Market.

Detainee last saw Abu 'Azzam in the Suq al-Ma'ash two days after the death of Haydar al-Afiri and Abu Nasir [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Haydar, Abu Nasir and Abu Qasim were killed during a CF attack on Abu Qasim's safe house. Detainee was surprised to see Abu 'Azzam because Detainee thought that Abu 'Azzam was also killed during the attack. Detainee provided the following description of Abu 'Azzam:
